

the warhol: resources & lessons

Unit Lesson Plans / Critical Thinking / Aesthetics / Lesson 4 / Handout 4.1

I believe cards*

I believe that art should show ordinary things in new ways.

I believe that art is anything I like.

I believe that art should mimic the real world.

I believe art should take a long time to make and be well made.

I believe that art should have a message or a story about how to be a better person or make the world a better place.

I believe art should always show some sort of feeling and emotion.

I believe art should be unique, original, and new.

I believe art should be beautiful and pleasing to the viewer.

I believe art should make people think.

*This activity is adapted from: Thinking Through Aesthetics, Marilyn Stewart (Worcester, Mass.: Davis Publications, Inc., 1997).

© 2008 The Andy Warhol Museum, a museum of Carnegie Institute. All rights reserved.

You may view and download the materials posted in this site for personal, informational, educational and non-commercial use only. The contents of this site may not be reproduced in any form beyond its original intent without the permission of The Andy Warhol Museum. except where noted, ownership of all material is The Andy Warhol Museum, Pittsburgh; Founding Collection, Contribution The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, Inc.